

I thought this country was built on free trade and capitalism. If Satellite can do a better job than local stations than why stand in their way. By the NAB trying to silence Satellite to me says they care nothing for the economy, innovation or the American people.